Your invitation to join the Best Western Gold Crown Club International program!

As a member of Surfing NSW you are eligible for free membership to the Best Western Gold Crown Club International card program.

Your Gold Crown Club International membership card will identify you as a valued Best Western customer and entitle you to collect points towards free accommodation and products, as well as qualify you for a range of associated benefits, including discounted accommodation rates both in Australia and at participating properties overseas, plus generous discounts with Avis and Budget Car Rental.

Your membership card will also have a Corporate ID number which you can quote when booking via our Central Reservation Office or via the internet.

As a member to earn reward points all you have to do is present your membership card at check-in each time you stay with Best Western. – it's that simple.

Points are valid for twelve months and are awarded for every dollar spent ($1 = 5 point) at our properties throughout Australia and participating properties overseas.

The program is subject to the terms and conditions provided with your membership card and may be amended from time to time. If you have any questions about the Gold Crown Club International program, please feel free to contact me on 0419 578 383
